Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am currently the Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) for Providence Health and duct cleaning in Brampton Services for Oregon and Alaska regions. In this role I am responsible for the HR support for over 17,500 employees. In 2014, I also served as the co-leader of the HR administrative transformation work. This work required leading and managing a portfolio of 66 projects with cross-functional participation and collaboration from all HR centers of expertise as well as other shared services at Providence.
