Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Antoine Corbineau is a freelance artist who dabbles in a bit of everything from graphic design to motion graphics, illustration, painting and art directing. Currently based in Paris, Corbineau also spent several years in both London and New York. His designs are colorful and often intricate depictions of today's world through his eyes. He combines text with images that feel like carnivals or boardwalks, bursting with energy and life. He already has a few exhibitions under his belt and has been working since 2001.

Antoine is interested in international issues, sociology, languages, political speeches, demography, maps and architecture, cities, borders.
