Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Aer Studio is an interaction design studio in Barcelona. We develop concepts and interaction for digital interfaces ushered by the idea that interaction between humans and computers should aspire to achieve seamlessness. We like to call this, Human-Computer Symmetry.

Examples of our work can be found online, on mobiles and multitouch devices, installations and visualized performances. Take a peek at a selection of our <http://www.aerstudio.com/work/selected/> work. Feel free to contact us for more information, or simply drop by the studio.

Our tags: User Experience (UX), User Interface (UI), Human Computer Interaction (HCI), Interaction, Data Visualization, Information Graphics, Design.
