Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Swiss/Italian artist, and designer.

Mirella was born in Bern. After her studies in Switzerland, she moved to Italy where she still lives and works.

While working as cultural manager in Italy and Switzerland, she developed her own artistic expressions in different media.

In the early '90 she met her future husband, Casimiro Mondino (fine art photographer, artist and designer) with whom she started working applying her artistic skill in their own design studio near Milan.

?As a designer she has been creating some of the most successful fine fragrance lines for renowned Italian fashion designer brands as well as products for Italian Design factories.
