Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
After twenty three years of wandering in the forests of Pennsylvania, Tony has arrived in the great city of New York... survival knife in hand.

When Tony isn't creating artwork, he listens to extremely abrasive electronic music and ponders philosophy. He is a full-contact kick-boxer and mixed martial artist, speaks fluent English, HTML, and parla un po' Italiano.

Tony has exhbitied work at Gallery Nucleus in Los Angeles, SVA Gallery in New York City, and various galleries across the Mid-Atlantic region. Today, he is attending the School of Visual Arts for an MFA in Illustration.

What have you done today to show the world you exist?

Previous Clientele
Tony has created work for The New York Times, Nanette Lepore, York College, The University of Pittsburgh Press, Employee Benefits News Magazine, The Woman Within Plus Size Clothing, The Williamsburg Gallery Association, and Conemaugh Health System.
