Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Mixed with traditional and modern, eastern and western, freehand and digital, Dennis Juan Ma¡¯s illustration is full of energy and passion. Growing up in China he moved to New Zealand in his late teens. He studied graphic design at university and works as a graphic designer and illustrator. His work covers the area of fashion, graphic novel and editorial all bearing his unique mark. His work is bright, positive, graphical and with a sense of humor. It often contains different culture impact generates to an art fusion. ¡° I enjoy creating artwork by using daily materials, those ones which we often ignored or complained about. Ordinary life is my main inspiration and I love music and fashion.¡±
