Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Antony Hare Private Illustration (AHPI) is the commercial firm founded by Antony Hare in 2006 that represents his formal illustration concern.

Ant's interest in graphics started early. 1986. His common childhood interest in drawing was augmented by an early and positive experience with the computer. Where many saw a dualism (even if they didn't understand it as such) Ant could see a powerful marriage. Some time later, in 1996, he founded Siteway.com. To this day it acts as his creative gateway.

Ant illustrates for tier-one clients and has been recognized by many industry honours. His primary non-familial interest is the dedication to his work and he looks forward to having you join him on his pursuit of illustration excellence.
