Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Cate graduated from Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, California and immediately started her photography company in 2007. She relocated in Los Angeles to specialize in event, pet and product photography. She is the most sought after pet photographer in the South Bay and has built her business around doing private in-home photo shoots that conveniently bring her professional photography services to you. She also provides a very special niche of photography utilizing a green screen to provide fun events held at a business's storefront to bring in more foot traffic and create cross promotion.
