Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Chantal is a highly respected working master makeup artist who has achieved much success across the industry. She is a board certified esthetician, educator, speaker and contributing beauty expert with over 14 years of experience. She is the founder and owner of Chantal Sauvignon, Inc. in Miami, Florida and editor of The Beauty Scoop, a blog where she writes weekly articles on makeup, skin care, and what's hot in hair, fashion and the makeup industry.

She is a prominent artist on the fashion scene and has worked both Miami and New York Fashion Week. She has worked with top agency models and her creations have appeared on numerous magazine covers and spreads. Her work can also be seen in television commercials, newscasters, theater, celebrities and on the faces of many beautiful brides. Chantal's incredible makeup artistry talent, years of experience in aesthetics, numerous magazine contributions and ability to connect with clients, models and photographers have made her an authority figure in the industry, and thus a remarkable beauty educator.
