Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Colette is known in Toronto and internationally for her memorable brushwork and transformations in fashion makeup for photography, magazines, runway, advertising, video, TV hosts, film, actors, models, events and more. She has worked with celebrities and is a top graduate of one of North America's prestigious makeup schools known for award-winning artists. Colette has many credits and clients to her name including designers at New York Fashion shows, Recording Artists from Canadian Idol, and work with personalities such as Hal Sparks of "Queer as Folk" fame, Actor/Comedian, Bob Newhart, actresses at the Toronto Film Festival, Bob Goen, long-time host for Entertainment Tonight and Barry Adelman, writer & producer of the Golden Globe awards. You'll see her work as key artist on the current reality show, "Making it Big," with an audience in both the US and Canada. Colette has conducted live television demos, and is regularly interviewed for her expertise in the art of makeup for media such as Makeup Artist Magazine, The Toronto Star, Today's Parent, Daily Dose, Canadian Living and other publications. Her work has also been published in fashion magazines throughout the United States. Colette's portfolio is currently being used as the prototype for fashion-forward work by Limperts Academy of Design, Dublin, Ireland. With her strong technical skills, Colette is sought after by budding makeup artists for one-on-one training, and has consulted for renowned advertising agency, New York's Kaplan Thaler Group, advising on marketing campaigns for cosmetic giants.
