

Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Passion guides my hand, and a deep understanding of what people expect to feel when choosing a product.

Add a voracious search for new trends and tech innovation, and the results are eye and soul catching customer experiences.

I consider myself a mass market specialized creative.

It's not a title you can hang on a wall, nor fill in a form, but many successful cases endorse it.

I'm lucky: I do what I love to do.
