Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My name is Chima and I came up with the idea for FunDonor three years ago. I am an architect, art promoter, film and documentary maker. My focus is on giving a voice to the voiceless and I have always felt my calling was to give back.

I set up Kambani Arts 12 years ago - It's an international art focused NGO that has helped a number of under-represented artists find their voice. We have held a diversity of exhibitions over the years and received support and sponsorship from a number of organisations.

Previous Clientele

Buckingham Palace, The BBC, The Commonwealth Secretariat, Cadbury, Alliance Française, British Council, Allen & Overy, Barclays Bank, Dept for International Development, City of London, Access Bank, Salvation Army, UK Treasury Office.

Awards and Accolades

- Strategic exhibition and event planning; curating commissioning and delivering international art exhibition projects.
- Researching/ applying for grants and funding for exhibition and film making projects. Oversee Funding applications
- Developing and implementing holistic film making workshop based community projects – running a 15 week course of 3 blocks of 5 weeks in partnership with schools.
