Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Jay Taylor graduated from the University of Central Lancashire, UK in 2005 with a BA(hons) Illustration degree. In the short space of time following, Jay has worked for a number of high profile clients in advertising, editorial and new media sections. He is regularly commissioned by a top national newspaper in the U.K. Jay's style plays on life's imperfections and is a big fan of the, "Happy accident". Everything you see in Jay's illustrations are made by hand, with the computer only coming in at the latter stages to composite and change colours of objects. Jay is also part of creative collective We're Still Alive, with whom he regularly exhibits work. Awards: Flair Illustrator of the Month from Creativematch.co.uk Selection in the AOI Images 30 annual Selection in the AOI Images 31 annual "New Arrivals, New Voices" One of twelve new talents to be selected to exhibit at the Coningsby Gallery, London by the AOI. September 2006. WSA- "Muk" Group exhibition with creative collective We're Still Alive at the SE1 gallery, London. August 2007.
