Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am a Venezuelan girl, Graphic Designer and Art Director living and working in Buenos Aires. In love with the art, design, creativity, music, yoga and the life itself.

I consider myself as a creative, tenacious, active and flexible person, who enjoys to work with people. I am also a believer of doing what you love to make it right. Love to learn new things everyday and i believe that you can do that with just opening your eyes every morning and really look around you. The world is a playground, you just have to take advantage of it!

Make work into play, and play into work!
