Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Being a child of a Singaporean father and a Taiwanese mother, Joyce flawlessly speaks both languages and adopted both her parents' national culture and aesthetics. Joyce loves to draw and design. She demonstrated her artist talent during her childhood days by drawing on the walls of her room and on her parents' book. As a passionate graduate from LASALLE College of the arts, Joyce put great interest in anything related to art and design. She loves spending time doodling in her little black book which she always carries around, recording all her imaginative thoughts and wild ideas from everyday life.
