Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My name is Minette and I'm a Creative Copywriter from London, currently in New York and on the lookout for new clients.

I love to create and develop authentic stories — from tiny teasers to long tales.

In a nutshell, I do creative direction including concept creation, branding, content strategy, and I write copy. Oh, and I do a bit of creative writing on the side too.

My clients are based in London and Berlin and include Farfetch, TASCHEN, Kindeo and HelloFresh.

If you're looking for someone to create your story, I'd be only too happy to string a few words together.
