Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Palmer Trinity School is a Miami private school that is dedicated to academic excellence and living lives of honor, integrity and social responsibility. Established in 1972, Palmer Trinity School offers a truly unique independent school experience, ensuring an appropriately challenging and supportive environment for more than 700 students. Nearly 3,000 Palmer Trinity Alumni span the globe today.

Palmer Trinity embraces the Episcopal tradition, encouraging each student to nurture his or her talents not only for personal gain, but in service to others. A myriad of community service opportunities abound, and a nationally known global citizenship program help to foster this development. We believe that our success is measured in the responsible actions of our students, and in that belief we strive to provide the foundation for responsible decision making. Character development is a priority at Palmer Trinity School and we seek to achieve and maintain the appropriate balance of mind, body and spirit in all of our endeavors. Check out our website or call us for any information about our school.
