Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I work out of a Los Angeles studio in a neighborhood that borders Thai Town, Little Armenia, and Koreatown, with Guatemalan and Salvadoran bakeries nearby. Every day I see hand-painted signs in languages I can't understand and this serves as both inspiration and reminder that the ordinary is often extraordinary and nothing is what it seems.

My illustration work is commissioned by a wide variety of national and international clients. You can see my work in magazines, children's books, on greeting cards, CD's, journals, gift wrap, feature film titles, and television commercials. I work with gouache, acrylic, collage, embroidery and digital software. In addition to commission work, I exhibit my artwork in various group and solo shows both nationally and internationally, including Los Angeles, New York, Rome and Melbourne Australia.
