Awards and Accolades

I studied Textile Art and Design at the National University of Arts, Bucharest, Romania. I am a participant in the West meets East – A Cultural Book Exchange project, which resulted in several exhibitions in Warwick, USA (2010) and Romania (2010 to 2012), and in the An Inventory of Al-Mutanabbi Street project (www.al-mutanabbistreetstartshere-boston.com). I participated with the art installation “The weaver” at the exhibition at the Romanian Academy Library, in Bucharest, Romania, in July 2010, and with the art installation “Ties that bind us” at the National Exhibition of Decorative Arts at Cotroceni, in 2012, and at the National Museum of Art from Moldova, Chisinau, Republica Moldova, in 2013. In 2013, I started working on a project called “In search of the perfect home”, which resulted in several works, of which I participated with “Unfinished” at the VIII International Biennial of Textile Miniatures “Thoughts – that is...” at Galeria Arka, Vilnius, Lithuania, in 2013, and with „Three friends” at the International Textile Art Biennial, in Haacht, Belgia, in 2015.
