Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

LUMBRE is a design and animation studio founded by Executive Producer Pablo Encabo and Creative Director Sergio Saleh.

Based in Buenos Aires, we deliver high quality work worldwide.

Experience comes from generating global projects for clients in the fields of broadcast, advertising, entertainment and even architecture.

With customized creative ideas and reliability, we have set as our primary goal to reach the highest standards and an efficient, flexible and close customer service.

Selecting Buenos Aires as our main office was a strategic decision in order to have both competitive prices and proximity to our network of partners, collaborators and friends.
