Awards and Accolades

Stanislaw Fernandes received his graduate education at Central St Martins College of Art & Design in London. Originally intending to study fine art, he changed his course of study to graphic design to suit his growing interest in multimedia mass communications.

After graduating and completing a post graduate course in Filmmaking, TV and Photography at St. Martin's, Stanislaw then joined Corgi Books in London as a junior designer where he was soon promoted to art director. Five years later he went on to form and head his own design group, SOLUTION.
