Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Tim Bowers has created award winning artwork in the areas of children's book publishing, the social expression industry and advertising. Bowers is an illustrator of over 35 published children's books. His illustrations have received numerous state and national awards and recognition, including Child Magazine's Top Pick, the Children's Choice Award and Junior Library Guild selections.

Bowers began his career at a Dayton, Ohio advertising art studio. He was then recruited by Hallmark Cards in Kansas City, eventually becoming an original member of the Shoebox Greetings division of Hallmark. Bowers' artwork is a unique combination of humor, realism, whimsy and story telling.
