Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Every start-up needs a hustler, a geek and a marketing guy - someone who can figure out the design of the interfaces, get the brand right and find traction. Add to that, getting the right press and putting together a compelling funding deck and that's what I love to do. I've had a role in more than a dozen funded, successful start-ups and eager for more.

Previous Clientele

I am the Creative Director for Wild Out West, we launch new ideas
CoAlign - new medical product, improving the outcomes of lumbar fusion procedures
Bulldog Gin - wildly successful new gin brand
Cause Insurance - new model for Philanthropy
Etuda - learning platform
BuyerFirst - New model for Real Estate buyers
Crystal Geyser - mineral water
Altamira Software - image editing

Awards and Accolades

Wild Out West is a venture consulting firm.
Successful new ventures are increasingly dependant on marketing factors for success. We develop strong brands, beginning with names and trademarks, develop interface driven applications and sites and know how to drive traffic with PR, strategic relationships and really whatever it takes. We have a long track record of successful, funded start-up and corporate initiatives... it helps that we are experts in multimedia and know our way around a winning pitch deck.
