Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Adam Savitch began shooting still-life in 1989. Originally from New York City, he moved to Paris in 1991 where he opened a photo studio and began shooting for some of the world's most prestigious brands including L'Oréal, Cartier, Hennessy, Dom Perignon, and Louis Vuitton. He now shares his time between Paris and New York City .

Adam specializes in liquids in motion as well as table-top still-life for high-end luxury brands. What makes his final images unique is the experimental nature of his process. From conceptualization to set production and product styling, Adam works with a small team to achieve a body of work whose artfulness is rare in the world of product photography.
