The chart is a family tree showing the relationships between the Grinnell brothers and their families. The central figure is "The Grinnell Brothers", with "Grinnell" and "Brothers" in parentheses. The chart branches out to show the names of the brothers, their wives, and their children. The names are written in a stylized, cursive font. The chart is organized into a hierarchical structure, with the brothers at the top and their families branching out below them. The chart is a detailed and intricate representation of the Grinnell family lineage.
