Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Coming from a family of artists, Ali Kabas's love of the visual arts and photography began at his early age. Receiving a Bachelor of Science degree from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and an MBA degree from Columbia University, Kabas has chosen photography as his profession.

His photographic mastery includes corporate, aerial, advertising, architecture and fine art. Based in Istanbul, Kabas is an expert in the latest digital photography and video technologies. He is a Getty Images Global Assignments photographer. He enjoys teaching photography and leads workshops. He has served numerous times as a jury member in photography contests.

Ali Kabas's fine art photography was featured in his personal exhibitions: "DreamWorld" 2002, "Mound-Silent Villages" 2005, "Recto-Verso" 2006, "High Angle" 2008, "Third Eye" 2012 at PG Art Gallery in Istanbul, "A Celebration of Istanbul" at the St. Regis Hotel and the Turkish Culture and Tourism Office in New York in 2005, and "Aerial Adana" at the 2016 International Orange Blossom Carnival in Adana.

When he's not shooting in his studio or working on location, Kabas either flies his paramotor or goes scuba diving.
