Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My name is Anatoly Vyalikh.

I'm hereditary* graphic designer, illustrator, typographer born in capital of Latvia, Riga, living in city Daugavpils surrounded by beautiful lakes, forests and fields. In 2010 I have graduated from British Higher School of Art and Design, Moscow (University of Hertfordshire), but currently I study at University of Hertfordshire in the United Kingdom to get Graphic Design (Visual Communications) Bachelors degree.

I create graphic, editorial, packaging, typography design, motion design, illustrations, photographs and animations taking inspiration from nature and history.

* In the 19th century my great-grandpa Matvey being young, worked as a typographer and graphic designer in Omsk (Siberia) for 10 years. At that time it was Russian Empire and country was leaded by Romanov's royal family.
