Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am Ann from Waco USA, I am working as an Urban planner in Littler's company. I have Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, particularly in cross-cultural environments; ability to speak other languages is beneficial. I like to read Lal kitab vashikaran for mother in law and some other topics. I'm a very confident and well presented individual at all times and also have public speaking abilities. I have a passion for events planning and management, and have succeeded in following through with this within small organisations and charitable events.
