ALQUEMY

Our name might be new, but our team is not!

Alquemy was formed by experienced IT search professionals with a strong desire to transform client expectations and help each firm compete by attracting top talent.

Our team has been hand-picked for their depth of experience, business acumen, and consistent career success to ensure your organization receives the highest level of professional IT staffing representation.

- Founded in 2002 and re-branded as Alquemy Search + Consulting in 2014.
- Founded by the former Founder/CEO of Koon Consulting, #2 ranking on the Profit 50 fastest growing Companies and #12 on the Profit 100.
- Funded/led by a diverse board of directors with deep roots in the Canadian tech and recruitment sector.
- Headquartered in Toronto and servicing clients across Canada with Personnel Recruiting and Contract Staffing, Executive Leadership Search, Recruitment Outsourcing, and Business Development and Human Capital Consulting.

Alquemy is for organizations that believe people and culture are their key strategic asset. Our clients value the competitive edge a strong search partner can provide them by attracting top talent to their organization.

The State of Recruitment

The staffing industry is becoming increasingly plagued by inexperience, misrepresentation, and an increased focus on high volume and low quality, leaving many organizations and staffing professionals frustrated with the state of recruitment. Alquemy seeks to reinvent the industry by bringing quality, transparency, integrity, and accuracy back to staffing representation. Our proven system and process are designed to deliver the highest quality candidates and build long-lasting partnerships with our clients.

We call it a return to the gold standard; and frankly, it's long overdue.
