Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

A multi-disciplinary studio formed, with the true nature of crafting innovative solutions to multiple genres of the industry. Surely its hard work, to imbibe the passion of raw art combining with strategic planning to sell, or what we call it, the Illustrative Advertising. We now, stand tall in the market with this unique style of art and serve the esteem clients of the nation and abroad.

Lead by the very talented and a gold medalist, Ankita Joshi, a graduate from Sophia Polytechnic started out as an apprentice for various established agencies like Image (Miami, Europe, Bahamas), Percept Holdings, etc., before establishing her own in the year 2000. One cannot call her just another “Kre8tv Nerd”. Ankita is ambitious, motivated and a go-getter. She has been honored to be the first woman, to paint live in zero gravity. Six years in the planning and conceptualizing of her project “Zero Gravity”, Ankita went to Orlando, Florida to live her dreams under the guidance of a former NASA trainer. She is the only woman in the world to risk her life in such a style, for the pursuit of creating a masterpiece. A real achiever, who has now set her mind for the stars. Literally.

Creativity is a skill that entails undivided attention to generate ideas that value. Artnow’s team of illustrators, visualizers, copy-writers, web-developers lead successfully by Ankita, not only produce effective campaigns but are known for its unique styles in branding, photography, set designing, print & web and covers both indoors and outdoors advertising. Our flexibility to provide for the changing needs of society in the new era of digital and electronic promotions gives our clients an opportunity to get exactly what they desire.

Creative satisfaction results to long-term association with clients and makes us very proud to nurture and build new brands to umpteen heights. We work with the clients as a team, to create the image that best expresses their product/services and garners maximum business advantages.
