Logo for San Antonio Fish Market

1 day ago by ruche

An exercise in concept + speed. I aimed for one hour but finished in 1:45 mins.

You have a non-textured version as well, right? I don't know if this is intended but i love the serifs on this font. It looks like a fish tail.

Logo for a delivery service ▼

13 minutes ago by stanchivici

"Hi! I am Melisa, creator of The New Chicago Delivery Service. For a while now, we've been looking for a good logo for our Delivery Service. I think a wordmark would look cool. Can you help us out?" At first, I tried designing this logo with ultra-modern fonts and typography but it didn't feel right. So I had it turned around to a typography that resembles the ones of the old factories of Chicago. The "THE" on top of the wordmark looked a little lonely so I added the 4 stars that are present on the Chicago's Flag.
