About melam an illustrator who be known as Bboyan though the internet.

In 2007, I have published a book named Bboyan's illust-house. this book is a photoshop textbook which mainly explain how to translate digital works from the hand drawings. In 2010, I have published a book named Meet the masters of art history. This book, art and artists to introduce their works and techniques, using Photoshop Digital Illustration representation is made as an example. After my book's published, I've requested as an instructor from several places. I've lectured at the university and these days I start to teach about Digital illustration at a design academy. The light can express itself in many subjects. Light shining on a dark evening, the waves, a rainy day car lights dimmed and the spread, Stars, jewelry, material, such as the rainbow is my favorite things
