Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Brian is an illustrator and designer based in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania.

He enjoys illustrating current events in sports, anything within the sneaker culture as well as caricatures. He takes inspiration from everything around him to develop his graffiti like style of art.

He loves capturing all the action within sports as he is a passionate fan of basketball. He enjoys drawing and illustrating human expression within his style of art.

When he isn't busy with any of the above, he enjoys playing the game of basketball with his wife and four children.

Brian desires to use his God-given ability to create astounding pieces of art for through any given medium and someday obtain a career working directly with the game he loves, basketball.
