EXPERIENCE

Since 2003 I have been working as a freelance photographer for various businesses and magazines producing a wide variety of work on location and in the studio. I have also been involved with a 6 year documentary project based in Somerset called IAMCIDER.

Before that I learnt much of my trade as an assistant photographer to top fashion, still life and advertising photographers. At various stages I have been employed to produce work for Marie Claire, Conde-Nast (Vogue) Another Magazine, Dazed & Confused, Jimmy Choo amongst other clients

Am familiar in multi-format shoots, film or digital and with most professional lighting systems for advertising, fashion, stock and PR on location or in the studio.

Previous to that, I have worked in many industries as I backpacked my way around various parts of the globe for four years including Mexico, Egypt, Australia, Thailand, New Zealand, Bahamas, Borneo, Latvia and much of Europe.
