Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

BookCoverZone, a startup technology company, is creating the largest and most vibrant marketplace for authors to create a strong and unique identity for their books, e-books and other published materials. We are dedicated to offer only high-end content for new and established authors and publisher. Authors and publishers can browse through our constantly expanding catalogue of high-quality, high-resolution pre-made book covers or they ask our designers to prepare a unique design for their soon-to-be-published works. We are hoping to be the bridge between the creative mind of the author/publisher and their audience. Through our premade,ready-to-use book cover designs, we believe expanding your audience will get easier.
