Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Carson Blume grew up in beautiful northern California, with Mt. Shasta and Lassen painting the backdrop to his burgeoning life as a photographer. He developed a keen sense for photography at a young age while exploring to wonders in his own backyard. Participating in cycling, running and numerous other outdoor adventures gives Carson the advantage of capturing these sports in a truly distinct and defining manner. He not only captures the image, but the raw excitement and thrill that comes from participation. Carson is currently attending Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, CA along with his sports and travel photography he owns and runs Digital Capture Systems, a Digital teching company for professional photographers..
