Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

C A R S O N (ISSN 2159-9963) is printed bi-monthly and is dedicated to quality in design, fine art, illustration, photography and writing.

Creative Director David Carson has won over 170 awards for his work in graphic design, had numerous one man exhibitions of his work worldwide, and has been called the "Art Director of the Era" by Creative Review London. USA Today called his work "visually stunning," and claimed "it may actually get young people reading again."

David Byrne said of Carson's work: "It communicates. But on a level beyond words. Just like music does — slipping in there before anyone has a chance to stop it at the border and ask for papers."
