Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
I'm an underground artist at the moment. Sounds a bit cliche, however, I run a little blog and I'm horrible at updating it let alone promoting it. I have a pretty big collection of pieces that still need to be cataloged. A brief introduction has me blabbing about art and nothing about myself. You could say that art is what defines me, everything in life is an art whether your using a paint brush, your own words, and even tying your own shoes. I'm originally from Morocco and I came to the U.S. when I was very young. I go back to Morocco every so often and I find a lot of my inspiration comes from the moorish mosaic tiles. They can be found in just about everyones home so their hard to escape. My drawings generally have a pattern which then turn into something much bigger. Similar to life's twists and turns I usually start every canvas with no intention of drawing a certain picture or theme. I let the pen go and I see what unfolds. My outlook on life is much similar. If you have any other questions fire away.
