Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Cathy Hull spent decades as a freelance illustrator and was a regular contributor to publications, books, and newspapers. Time Magazine, New York Magazine, The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, and The Nebelspalter (Swiss) to name a few. The pandemic was a game-changer. Art 101 of the Deal: Donald J. Trump Off the Wall and Art 2.0 of the Deal: Donald J. Trump Hits the Wall were written in lockdown during the pandemic. January 6th. The artist was back at her computer drawing her conclusions for a new graphic novel, #BIDENWON: The Art of Recovery.

Previous Clientele
In the time-honored tradition of William Hogarth, Francisco Goya, Honoré Daumier, Thomas Nast,and George Grosz, the illustrator-author utilizes reinterpreted iconic imagery to critique controversial issues of the day. It's a wild and witty satiric ride thru turbulent events and topics of the day. Sex, politics, law, race, religion, gender, and culture wars. Nothing is sacred.

Hull's art has received global recognition. It has been widely exhibited in museums in the United States (The Brooklyn Museum 17th National Print Exhibition), Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum, Canada, France (the Pompidou Center), Greece, Norway, Switzerland (The International Cartoon Exhibition in Basel), Turkey (The Biennale of Humour), United Kingdom, and Museum of the City of Skopje, North Macedonia (one-woman show.)
