Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

About Channon Roe

Channon Roe, has been an actor in the film and television Industry since the early 90's. Some of his credits include; Boogie Nights, The 40 Year Old Virgin, Behind Enemy Lines and an extensive list of Television titles.

A California native, Roe grew up on the beaches of Newport, he is an avid surfer and is passionate about Ocean Conservation.

The Californian lifestyle has been an immense influence in Roe's life and work, from the diversity of cultures both native and immigrant, the varied typography of landscape, the modern architecture movement (he was married at Schindler's Residence), music and fine art.

During his early acting training in Los Angeles, Roe began working for Interior Designer, Michael Smith. Smith introduced an extensive variety of projects and clients, exposing Roe to the many areas of the profession.

Since that time, Roe has continued to develop his expertise, having traveled internationally for his work, he broadens his knowledge of Interiors, Furniture, Design, Art and Culture, and brings with him, a unique international flare.

Over the years, Roe has maintained a strong client base, working exclusively for friends and colleagues within the entertainment, music and fashion industries. Some of his projects include the Residences of; Claire Stansfield - Collaboration (C&C California), Susie Crippen (J Brand Jeans), his Commercial work includes a Suite and Penthouse at The Camels Garden Hotel - Telluride, CO.

Channon Roe has custom designed and manufactured furniture on all his projects, he enjoys the individual personalized touch that this provides a space, having imported zinc from France and fabricating the handcrafted top of a dining table, to wicker dining chairs and leather bar stools (see :The Oaks Residence), there is no length that he has not gone to make the Interiors as unique, as his clients are special.

In 2010, The Los Angeles Times featured The Stansfield/Speaks Residence which Roe consulted on, as the cover of it's Saturday Home Section. Soon following, a full page article in Angelino Magazine, featuring Roe among Los Angeles' most influential designers.

In 2011 Roe's Interiors have appeared in both Stella Magazine - Britain, and The Times - Britain.

Channon Roe is married to an Australian, he divides his time between Los Angeles and Melbourne.

Channon Roe Maison & Design Consulting Firm, will open in both cities, January 2012.
