Tips for driving in UK
for aliens

Drive on the left side of the road

All road signs use imperial units

Do not drive in bus lanes during the restricted hours

Vehicle dimensions in feet and inches

Distance signs are specified with miles or yards

Speed limits are in miles per hour

It's illegal to use a mobile phone when driving

Speed limits are different

The use of a car horn is not permitted in built-up areas from 23:30 to 07:00 hours

48 kph (30 mph) in built-up areas

96 kph (60 mph) on single carriageways

112 kph (70 mph) on motorways and dual carriageways

Parking in many residential areas is allowed after 18:00 and on weekends

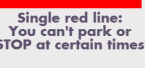

Single and double yellow and red lines along the edge of the road

Pay & display parking: pay at a machine and clearly display the ticket on the dashboard or the windshield

Single yellow line: there are restrictions on parking at certain times

Single red line: You can't park or STOP at certain times

Double yellow line: You can't park at any time

Double red lines: You can't park or STOP at any time

Drive safely!
