Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Claudia Lynch has enjoyed a multifaceted career as theatrical costume designer, tutu-maker, milliner, author, publisher, artist and illustrator. She relishes the variety of each new day, completing projects as varied as corporate brochures, fashion illustrations for a sewing magazine, faux Andy Warhol prints for a film, and, of course, ShoeStories™. ShoeStories™ have been featured in a number of locally shot films, HBO's Treme, and the CW's series The Carrie Diaries.

Each detailed painting in the ShoeStories™ series is accompanied by an original story, loaded with witty puns and clever innuendo, narrated by a hard-boiled skirt chaser right out of a 1940's detective novel. Exaggerated proportions make each heel impossibly high and impossibly sexy. Right away, you're in the mood to surrender to every tongue-in-cheek double meaning in the otherwise innocent words.
