Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Colin is a full-time commercial and editorial photographer who lives in Philadelphia, but works all over the place. He enjoys shooting portraits, doing documentary work and being creative.

The studio is located in Northeast Philadelphia, a short 2 block walk from the Church Street stop on the El, and only minutes from 95. The studio has gated parking, free protected wifi, a cute studio dog and comfortable seating. For more info on the studio, and information about using it as a Philadelphia rental photo studio go to www.philadelphiaproductions.com .

Besides taking pictures, Colin occasionally moonlights as an adjunct professor of Journalism at Temple University. When Colin isn't working he enjoys movies, spending time with family and friends, backpacking, cycling, skiing, and riding his vintage motorcycle.

Colin dislikes mean or lazy people. (And sometimes those that take up two parking spaces in front of his house)

Colin is a burrito connoisseur.
