Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
"If people concentrated on the really important things in life, there'd be a shortage of fishing poles"

Hi there, I am a heavily published Northern California based commercial photographer. I specialize in interiors, food, and lifestyle as well as commercial fashion print.

I shoot both on location and in my well-equipped studio.

People ask why did I become a photographer. Well, I was ten years old and was sent to a small independent school. The teacher wanted to start a school camera club. He had an old Yashica Mat camera, a mostly working tripod, and a rusty black and white enlarger. A spare closet was our darkroom. I picked up that camera and that was it, I new where my life was heading. Thirty years later I am still following my bliss.

I was born and raised in Northern California I have lived in several other areas; college, assisting in NYC, but I always return to my Sacramento roots. Don’t know where I will end up but I will have a camera in my hands wherever I go.

Those times when I don’t have a camera in my hands I have a fishing pole. When not in the studio I'm out in my boat. Sunrise on a mountain lake, the hum of the trolling motor, smell of Pro Cure on my hands, it doesn’t get better than that.

Models, if you would like to send me your comp card for future consideration of jobs, please send to my studio at:
