Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Carsten Steinhausen is a master in Adobe Photoshop and well known for his complex digital compositing work, photo illustrations and high-end retouching.

Carsten received his formal training in lithography, graphic design and pre-press in Germany. He then worked in advertising in both Europe and the United States before relocating to Los Angeles in 2000. For the last 11 years, he has concentrated on digital retouching and photo compositing for advertising campaigns in the music and photo industries. Carsten has worked alongside preeminent commercial and fine art photographers such as Matthew Rolston, Tony Duran, Dan Winters, Andrew McPherson, Glen Wexler and Olaf Heine, to name just a few, creating some of the most iconic images of our time. He is also an expert in producing various types of exhibition prints for artists, galleries and museums throughout the world. Carsten has a passion for music, photography and technology, and thrives on using his 30+ years of experience in advertising and photography to collaborate with artists to help them achieve their vision
