Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Dewey Saunders is a visual artist working in multiple mediums. Working commercially as an illustrator, he has done drawings for The New Yorker and has been featured in How and Communication Arts. His illustration style is usually in pen and ink with a focus on portraiture; however, experimentation is seen in every piece. Dewey also works as a graphic designer using a unique style incorporating obscure found imagery with a nostalgic handmade approach. He is currently working on numerous graphic design and illustration projects for a variety of clients.
