Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Highly motivated, creative and versatile communications professional with design, production and project management experience at renowned design firms and advertising agencies. Also experienced in working with nonprofit organizations to create impactful communications that achieve maximum results with limited resources. Innovative, flexible, nimble and able to think from creative, conceptual, strategic and technical perspectives. A ninja at multitasking as well as planning, executing and managing projects, from conception through final production. A can-do teammate with excellent communication skills. Proactive, forward-thinking, easy-going yet hard-working. Diverse, multidisciplinary abilities and well-versed in developing all aspects of branding, marketing and communications across multiple media channels. And a genuinely nice person who wants to see your business succeed.
