Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Elizabeth O. Dulemba is an award winning author/illustrator of fifteen children's books. She is also Illustrator Coordinator for the Southern SCBWI region, on the board of the Georgia Center for the Book, a writing and illustration instructor at various venues; and she speaks regularly at schools and events. Her latest picture book is THE 12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS IN GEORGIA (Sterling). In 2010, her "Coloring Page Tuesdays" garnered over 1.5 million visitors to www.dulemba.com.

Previous Clientele

Sterling Children's Books, Scholastic, Oxford University Press, Houghton Mlfflin, Harcourt, McGraw-Hill, MacAdam/Cage, Raven Tree Press, Free Spirit Publishing, Shen's Book, Writer's Digest, Highlights Magazine, etc....

After fifteen years experience as a graphic designer/Art Director and in-house illustrator, as well as another ten years as an award-winning author, illustrator, and speaker, I have an especially wide range of skills from html to Creative Direction, but the points on my resume (attached) that you may find most relevant are these...

I have become known in the book industry as an expert marketer (with several published articles on the topic). I created my own website (html and Dreamweaver) which has nearly 3,000 subscribers and received over 1.5 million visitors to my weekly promotion both in 2010 and 2011. My trend forecasting radar is very strong. I am an early adopter, embrace technology (I work digitally and take full advantage of social media), and I created one of the first children's book apps available on the iPhone and iPad (which has been downloaded over 10,000 times). I have been nationally recognized for creating and organizing major events that celebrate and build cohesiveness within the local illustration community. I do a large amount of public speaking (on marketing and technology) and teaching (writing and illustration) and am therefore very comfortable working with teams of people and making presentations. I am a connector, a mentor and an idea generator - and I have fifteen published books. I make things happen.

How can I help you?

Sincerely, Elizabeth O. Dulemba http://dulemba.com http://2BDesigns.info
