Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae emin kadi is a self-taught photographer, discovered his talents through his experience in the fashion industry as an international model. Stepping from in front of the camera, to behind it, Emin realized where he belonged. After unveiling his true passion of fashion photography, mixing his love for creativity and encompassing beauty, Emin took the industry by storm. Traveling around the world, collaborating with inspiring talent, and living life as it came created the ideal blend for his success. He has photographed thousands of models and been published in over 50 international magazines such as Leica World Magazine, PDN, Professional Photographer, etc. Emin?s photography led to the success of his creative entity. His career consists of not just shooting beautiful pictures, but understanding how media should be displayed and published, thus opening the door for his uber successful publication, Clear Magazine. Through his creative eye, Emin founded, published, and creative directed the international magazine that is known globally and has won 27 international design awards. His ability to photograph his own covers as well as most fashion spreads while art directing others, is what sets Emin apart. His unique style and uncanny ability to direct from the camera to the concept, and all the way through publishing create a package undeliverable by another.
