Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Hi there, I'm Emily and I'm a Manchester-based Graphic Designer/Illustrator/Creative.

I'm a graduate from The University of Salford where I earned a First Class Honours in Graphic Design specialising in print. Since I completed my education I have worked in retail, a design agency and currently a publishing company where I manage the design of three publications.

Passionate about print, typography and photography I enjoy being creative within work but also when I have a bit of free time. As a self-confessed geek with a soft spot for superheroes, you'll find me spending my down-time absorbing films, hidden behind a book or creating my own prints.
